THE ENCORE SOCIETY

Be a part of the legacy

Join the Encore Society and make a lasting impact on future audiences through creative planned giving. By making a legacy gift to the Sun Valley Music Festival endowment, your generosity today will extend to future generations who attend free-admission Sun Valley Music Festival concerts.

YOU MAKE IT HAPPEN!

The largest privately funded free-admission symphony in America, the Sun Valley Music Festival was founded in 1985 as the Elkhorn Music Festival by Dr. Carl and Julianne Eberl. In its 35 years, the orchestra has grown to more than 100 players from around the country. The Sun Valley Music Festival presents free orchestra and chamber music concerts as well as education programs to over 50,000 people annually.

Under the leadership of Music Director Alasdair Neale since 1995, the full symphony orchestra includes distinguished musicians from major orchestras throughout North America, including the San Francisco Symphony, the Pittsburgh Symphony, the New York Philharmonic, the Houston Symphony, the Toronto Symphony, and the St. Louis Symphony.

In keeping with its mission, the Sun Valley Music Festival offers music education programs for students of all ages through their Music Institutes' year-round and Summer programs, and adult lectures on musical topics.
